Membership Recruiter – Wildlife Conservation

Love Wildlife, Conservation and Nature. Want to help make a difference?

We are looking for people with passion, enthusiasm. great communication skills and perseverance to join our fundraising team to represent the Lancashire Wildlife Trust.

Working in pre booked sites including shows and events across Lancashire, our team really do make a difference, helping raise awareness and recruit members for Lancashire Wildlife Trust, enabling them to continue the invaluable work they do to help nature recover.

Benefits of the role include:

- An opportunity to join a great team that is making a real difference and inspiring people to save nature
- Full training and lots of ongoing support from industry leading membership recruiters
- Number of days to suit you – we offer 2, 3, 4 or 5 days a week
- Basic wage with a generous remuneration package
- 6 weeks annual leave per annum (including bank holidays)
- Be part of our family culture

About you:

- Be passionate about wildlife, conservation, and nature
- be an effective, persuasive, passionate and engaging communicator able to create a rapport in a face-to-face situation
- have a positive attitude, high level of self-motivation and a strong work ethic
- enjoy the variety of travelling and working in a different environment each day
- have the flexibility to work weekends
- You must have a full driving licence and your own vehicle

All uniform, equipment and point of sale materials are provided - including an electronic tablet. Accommodation will be provided if staying away plus a contribution towards travel expenses will be paid.

If you are interested in making a difference and want to discuss this opportunity in more detail, please submit your CV to Jo Hill