A bit about Dogs Trust

It all started in 1891 when the National Canine defence league campaigned against cruelty to dogs, in the decades to come not only did they campaign but started to rehome dogs. In 2003, they became Dogs Trust, the UK's leading dog welfare charity. Not only do dogs trust rehome dogs in the UK, but they provide care for over 1300 dogs, providing kennels, veterinary care, training, and rehabilitation.

Dogs Trust are proud of what they have achieved over the last 130 years, but there is much more still to do, such as support even more dogs to live their best life – and find a happy new home. And there are so many urgent problems to be resolved, such as puppy smuggling.
