

Membership Recruiter – Wildlife Conservation

Love Wildlife, Conservation and Nature. Want to help make a difference?

We are looking for people with passion, enthusiasm, great communication skills and perseverance to join our fundraising team to represent Suffolk Wildlife Trust.

Working in pre booked sites including shows and events throughout Suffolk, our team really do make a difference, helping raise awareness and recruit members for the Suffolk Wildlife Trust, enabling them to continue the invaluable work they do to help nature recover.

The role is part time, 3 or 4 days a week, to include Saturday and Sunday.

Benefits of the role include:

- An opportunity to join a great team that is making a real difference and inspiring people to save nature
- Full training and lots of ongoing support from industry leading membership recruiters
- Basic wage with a generous remuneration package
- 18-24 days annual leave per annum (including bank holidays, depending on how many days a week you work, equivalent to 6 weeks leave pro rata)
- Be part of our family culture

About you:

- Be passionate about wildlife, conservation, and nature
- be an effective, persuasive, passionate and engaging communicator able to create a rapport in a face-to-face situation
- have a positive attitude, high level of self-motivation and a strong work ethic
- enjoy the variety of travelling and working in a different environment each day
- have the flexibility to work weekends
- You must have a full driving licence and your own vehicle

The role would suit someone who is passionate about wildlife, maybe retired or semi-retired or just looking for part time work and happy to work weekends. Someone wanting to go to work and feel fulfilled at the end of the day, helping make a difference. All Applications welcome.

All uniform, equipment and point of sale materials are provided - including an electronic tablet. Accommodation will be provided if staying away plus a contribution towards travel expenses will be paid.

If you are interested in making a difference and want to discuss this opportunity in more detail, please submit your CV to Jo Hill by email – recruitment@cffundraising.co.uk
